

Twilight Seminar: Integrated Management of Summer Stress on Turf

UMass Amherst Extension Turf Program

In mid-summer 2009, the UMass Joseph Troll Turf Research Center will welcome interested turf managers for a special evening seminar. Attendees will be offered a guided first-hand look at research projects and other items of interest at the Center. The educational program will focus on the viewing of stress-related turf problems in the field, and discussion will cover the integrated management of these issues unique to the summer season. Remember to dress appropriately for the weather, as this event will be held rain or shine.
